Temecula, CA (January, 2018) – The Truax Building welcomes Nick & G's, a Mediterranean/Italian restaurant.. The restaurant will be located on the East side of the Truax Building and span approximately 7,000 sq. ft.

Bernie Truax, President and C.E.O. of Truax Family of Companies commented, “We are delighted to have Nick & G's join our family. Their offerings have had great success wherever they have opened and we are excited to see this specialty dining option brought to our valley.”

Nick & G's is the newest darling of the Grand Restaurant Group. Nick & G's adds to a collection of award-winning eateries such as Bellamy's Restaurant, The Ranch in Bandy Canyon in Escondido, Verbena Catering, Di Cicco's Italian Restaurant in Clovis, California, and Hula Hulas in Hilo, Hawaii.

Boyd Kerr, of the Grand Restaurant Group commented, “we choose the Truax Building because of its substantial architecture and excellent location.”

Nick & G's joins Nightingale, Serendipity, Sugar Divaz, Apple One, Dynamic Vision, Temecula Insurance Services, Cengage, Connelly Mansell, Inc., Watermark Associates, and the Truax Family of Companies that call the Truax Building home.

The Truax Building is a classic “turn-of-the-century” Class “A” mixed use commercial property. Located just off the I-15 corridor, this iconic building has become a landmark in Old Town Temecula, California.

It is the corporate headquarters of the Truax Family of Companies and was completed in 2013.
